Honorable William H. Webster
 Director of Central Intelligence
 Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

Thank you for your February 8 letter concerning the February 4, 1988 Washington Post article [redacted] I share your concern about this disclosure and will institute an inquiry in an effort to shed light on this unfortunate disclosure. I will share any progress that has been made with you at our meeting on February 17.

25X1

I also think we should discuss two other aspects [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] Officials of other intelligence agencies have told the Committee

25X1

25X1

[redacted] The generous nature [redacted] compensation thus raises the appearance of Agency involvement in an attempt to influence domestic public debate. That is something which I think we will both agree ought to be avoided at all costs.

25X1

I appreciate the always straightforward, candid nature of your letter and earnestly hope that we can work together to resolve problems of this kind as they arise.

Sincerely,

LOUIS STOKES
 Chairman
